On motion by Mr. Hobbs,

Ordered, That the message of the Senate relating to extra work done by the Chief Clerk of the Senate be referred to the committee of claims with directions to examine the printed and recorded proceedings of the Senate, and of the House of Delegates, of December session, 1831, and allow to the Chief Clerks of both Houses such additional compensation as they may deem sufficient and just.

On motion by Mr. Teackle,

Ordered, That the memorials and petitions of a great number of persons of different counties praying the establishment of a State Bank be withdrawn from the files of the House.

On motion by Mr. Pratt,

Ordered, That five hundred copies of the report of the committee on the Digest of the Laws, be printed for the use of the Legislature.

Mr. Turner, from the committee, made an unfavourable report upon the order of the house directing them to inquire into the expediency of having the laws printed in the newspapers;

Which was read the first and second time by special order and concurred in.

Mr. Rogerson, chairman of the committee on pensions and revolutionary claims, delivered the following report:—

The committee on military pensions and Revolutionary Claims, to whom was referred the petition of Julianna Brice, (relict of Col. James Brice of the city of Annapolis) have had the same under their consideration, and after the most serious investigation of the subject, they have not been able to discover any services rendered by Col. Brice, that would have entitled him to a military pension. It does not appear that he (Col. Brice) ever served in the
